Head onto the Hemel-n-Aarde road (R320) from Caledon

After 3,1km, turn left on the Tesselaarsdal road

Continue on the gravel road for 13km until the road splits. At the split, Keep right.

Continue with the road for 1,3km until road splits again

Keep left and continue for 3,6km until you reach Tesselaarsdal (road changes from gravel to tar in town).

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

There are two access roads to Hoenderhok Estate, both described in details below.

Option 1 will be the route shown on a GPS. This road is accessible but very often in a very poor state. We would not suggest using this route.

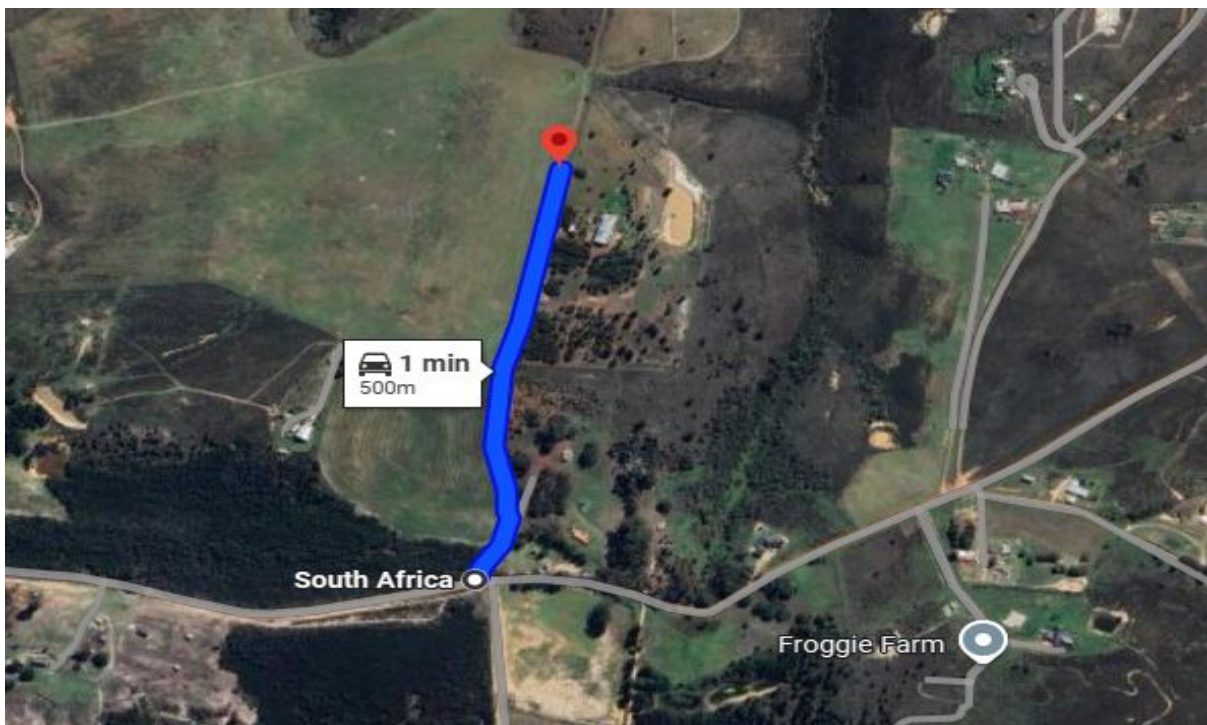

Option 2 as described below crosses private farmland and is maintained by us. Even low clearance vehicles can easily navigate this route.

OPTION 2:

Continue through the town for 1.9km. The road changes from tar to gravel again.

As per photo below, take the first left turn (approx 400m after road has changed from tar back to gravel).

After approximately 500m, the road will fork again as per picture below. Continue straight.

After approximately 700m, will reach the last fork in the road as per picture below. Keep left.

If you continue straight, you will arrive at Hoenderhok Estate.
Congratulations, you have arrived!!

The very first unit you will encounter, will be unit 6 which also serves as reception.
